SAMPLE PAGES

TEACHING RESOURCES FOR BIOLOGY 2025 EXAMS

Conceptual learning, linking questions, Nature of Science all help to deliver the new developments. Resources include, topic planning sheets, learning activities for students, worksheets & multimedia resources, topic tests with model answers and advice & guidance for teachers.

ADAPTATIONS OF HAEMOGLOBIN HL

Three activities explore how haemoglobin binds to oxygen and how high levels of carbon dioxide can cause an increase the oxygen dissociation in places where tissues respire most. The affinity of haemoglobin for oxygen at different concentrations including the skills of analysing oxygen-dissociation curves.

TOPIC TESTS FOR 2025 EXAMS

Concise 30-minute tests written by experienced teachers. The questions are designed to have the same style as IB exam questions. We know that simple factual recall is often not enough to answer IB diploma questions. They allow flexibility for teachers. Two topics to be tested at once, or students requiring extra time can take the test within a lesson: A great resource to enable timely feedback for students.

SAMPLE PAGES

BMT

The Business Management Toolkit (BMT) is a set of interrelated tools and techniques that students use in different contexts across the contents of the syllabus, including assessments.

THE NEW INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

The new IA is a business research project that requires students to produce a 1,800-word research project about a real business issue using one of the key concepts: creativity, ethics, sustainability, or change.

BALANCE SHEETS

Gain confidence in delivering the quantitative aspects of the course, including worked examples, exam practice questions (with full mark schemes), and supporting videos that students can work through in their own time.

Whether they are completely new to teaching the IB or an experienced 'old hand' this site aims to provide everything a teacher could possibly need to deliver the complete IB Chemistry diploma programme in a stimulating and dynamic way.

KEY SECTIONS

DELIVERING THE PROGRAMME

Advice and examples of how to enthuse your students.

TOPICS

Teaching tips, questions and other resources for each sub-topic covering the whole syllabus.

CRITICAL THINKING

Encouraging you and your students to question underlying assumptions and inconsistencies found in chemistry.

INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

Exploration of the scientific investigation, implementation, delivery and evaluation with marked samples.

PRACTICAL SCHEME OF WORK

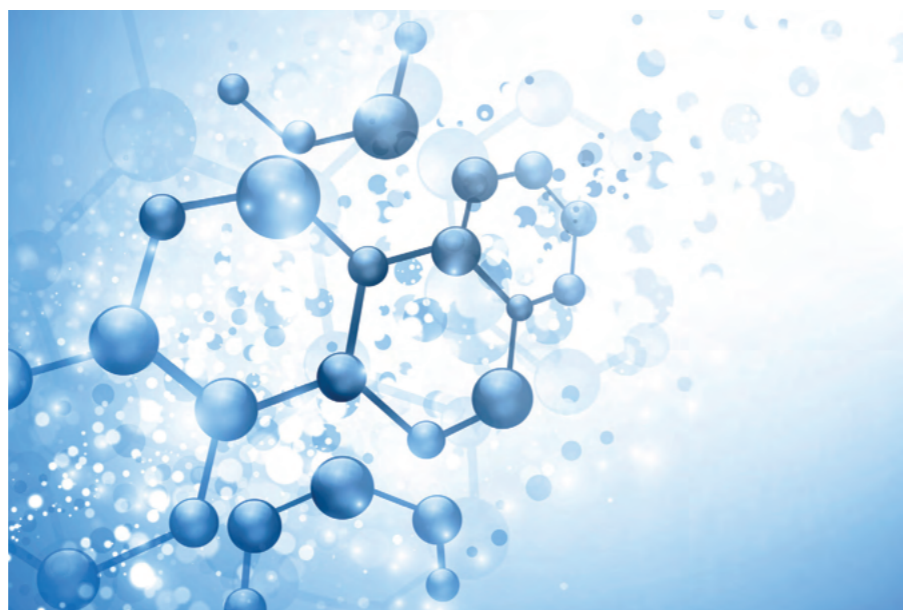

Full details of many experiments covering all aspects of the practical programme, including the required experimental skills.

ASSESSMENT

Comprehensive guidance to maximise your students' performance in all the exam components.

NEW QUESTIONS

Hundreds of new IB-style questions (multiple choice and short-answer) all with worked answers.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"I am a great admirer of this brilliant resource. It is undoubtedly the best site for planning, teaching and learning 'IB Chemistry' as it is full of 'up to date' guidance, resources and timely support required."

Kajal Manglani, Singapore International School, Mumbai, India

"This website is a 'lifesaver'. Huge thank you to your effort in putting together so many small pieces to produce such a holistic and great resource for teachers and students."

Lound Syed, Shanghai United International, China

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Navigate examinations and assessments with confidence. Gain practical guidance and access teacher and student guides for the Internal Assessment.

IB CORE

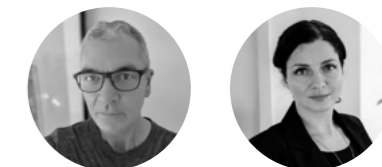

Master the Extended Essay and TOK elements of the course with comprehensive information and support for both teachers and students.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The recently launched DP Computer Science site has already attracted many subscribers who are attracted not only by the comprehensive teacher guidance on all aspects of the course, but also by the integrated student e-book. The detailed advice on external and internal assessment is also invaluable.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

MICHAEL BROOKE & ANNA DABSKA bring a combined 45+ years of teaching experience, and have extensive expertise in Computer Science & technology integration. They have both a background as examiners and workshop leaders. Their passion for innovation shines through in their dedication to transforming education and enhancing student engagement.

SAMPLE PAGES

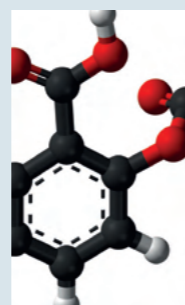

TRULY INTERNATIONAL

This page challenges teachers and their students to question whether IB Diploma chemistry is truly International or whether the syllabus in the 2023 guide is unwittingly promoting a Western cultural bias to the teaching and understanding of chemistry.

DEFINING AND USING "CURLY ARROWS" CORRECTLY

The correct use of curly arrows causes real problems - both to students (and teachers) and examiners. This page shows students how use them correctly so they can be certain to obtain full marks.

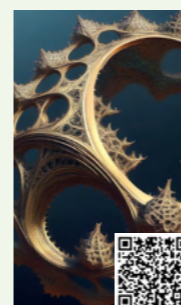

ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY PRACTICAL

Here we mimic the situation we find in the world where resources are finite. It usually takes about 1.5 hours to complete and is great for seeing how students can work as a team to solve a real problem.

SAMPLE PAGES

THINKING RECURSIVELY

This section dives deep into the fascinating world of recursion. Explore how recursive thinking can be applied to a variety of problems, from the natural beauty of snowflakes and fractals to the classic Towers of Hanoi puzzle. Students learn how to identify and utilise recursive thinking within problem solutions.

DIFFERENT TYPES OF NETWORKS

Empower your teaching of network fundamentals with this comprehensive resource page. Engage your students in exploring various network configurations and guide them through a deep understanding of the essential elements that comprise a network. This resource provides a solid foundation for learning in network communication.

D.2 FEATURES OF OOP EXERCISES

Explore the power of Object-Oriented Programming with this engaging assignment designed to assess student understanding of OOP's core features. As with all assignments on our platform, a detailed answer sheet is provided to streamline grading and support your teaching process.

The Economics site contains a wealth of teaching materials, practice examination questions, model student responses and revision materials, written for both IB teachers and students. It also contains lesson plans, revision quizzes and activities for each of the 4 units at SL and HL level, the internal assessment and extended essay.

KEY SECTIONS

LESSON PLANS

Lesson plans, activities, revision material, quizzes and assessment for each of the 4 units: introduction to economics, microeconomics, macroeconomics and the global economy.

INTERNAL & EXTERNAL ASSESSMENT

This section provides further detail on each of the three examination papers, including sample examination questions and mark schemes, guidance on writing the internal assessment and exemplar student sample material.

TEXTBOOK & REVISION GUIDE

These sections of the site are specifically written to support students. They closely follow the syllabus set out in the IB guide and cover each aspect of the course. They also include self-assessment examination-style questions for each sub-section using real-world examples and end-of-section revision quizzes.

IB CORE

This section focuses on the core elements and suggests links to incorporate theory of knowledge into lesson units and the extended essay. It also includes exemplar student samples and assessment guidance.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"The InThinking website is a valuable resource for those studying Economics at IB. The practice papers are extensive and notes provided are detailed and authoritative. Videos are also very interesting and the quizzes are a good method of checking understanding. I would recommend this to anyone wishing to do well at IB Economics."

Robert Norman, Sevenoaks School, UK

"InThinking provides an interactive platform that provides a wealth of materials for Economics. The lesson plans are dynamic and involve ubiquitous activities so that your class will stay engaged throughout the course."

Peter Donkin, IS Hamburg, Germany

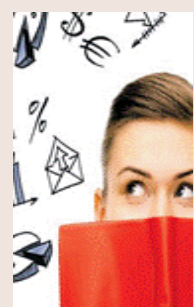

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

MARK JOHNSON & ALEX SMITH

are IB economics teachers with more than 50 years of teaching experience between them. In addition to being senior examiners, they have both authored IB textbooks.

SAMPLE PAGES

PAPER 1 GUIDANCE ON ESSAY WRITING

This page takes you through an example question and answer from a paper one economics examination paper. It will help your learners identify command terms and understand what is required in the response.

PAPER 2 STYLE EXAMINATION QUESTIONS

This section of the site contains 24 paper two style questions, written by the authors according to the new syllabus, starting August 2020. Each question is designed to be completed in around 85 minutes, mark schemes for each of the questions can be accessed directly from this page.

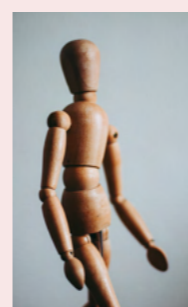

REAL-WORLD EXAMPLES (FOR PAPER 1 ENRICHMENT)

This section provides direct access to real-world examples that students can use to support their answers to the questions in paper 1. Each real-world example is set out as a case study and has paper 1 style essay questions based on it. You can also find mark scheme answers for the questions.

SAMPLE PAGES

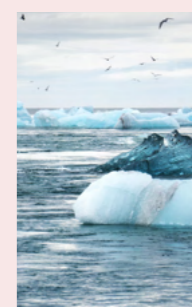

BODIES OF WORK - A CURATED LIST

Do you need help in curating a body of work for your class? This page has over 20 bodies of work from a wide variety of text types including speeches, posters, cartoons, photographs, films, and much more!

PAPER 2 SAMPLE RESPONSE 1

Get access to an example Paper 2 based on one of the examination questions. Even if you don't teach these literary works, your students will benefit from reading this Paper 2. It's well-developed, thoughtful, and persuasive.

ASKING QUESTIONS OF GEORGE MONBIOT

This page provides lesson activities that introduce the writing of English journalist and writer George Monbiot (we have many more pages about his writing too). Monbiot's essays are engaging and polemical. They are accessible to IB Language and Literature students and deal with many important contemporary global issues.

Our site covers all areas of the English Language A: Language and Literature syllabus and contains course information, practical lessons, advice, and assessment exemplars.

The site is designed to meet the specific needs and interests of IB English teachers.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"Very concise with updated guidelines, this site is a real pillar for IB teaching."

Roopa Gosain, Chinmaya International Residential School, India

"The InThinking resources really help me focus on what I need to be teaching my students. Whenever I am feeling overwhelmed by the Lang & Lit course, I go to the InThinking web site and it puts me back on track."

Aletha Rossiter, Renaissance College, China

"This is a great site for lesson material, tips and ideas. I keep coming back for more! My students are always interested in the topics I use from your site and I can thoroughly recommend it to anyone teaching English Language and Literature. Thanks so much!"

Lorraine Evans, International School, Netherlands

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

DAVID MCINTYRE & TIM PRUZINSKY

are both experienced IB English teachers and workshop leaders who have served in a number of different capacities within the IB. Both have served on various curriculum review committees while David was the longtime moderator on the OCC.

Our site covers all areas of the English Language A: Literature syllabus and contains course information, practical lessons, advice, and assessment exemplars. The site is designed to meet the specific needs and interests of IBDP English teachers.

KEY SECTIONS

CORE SKILLS

Ideas for lessons to build the skills & aptitudes students need for reading & responding to literature.

THE COURSE

An overview of the course and ideas about course design and approaches.

AREAS OF EXPLORATION

A guide to the three broad conceptual lenses used on the course: readers, writers and texts; Time and space; Intertextuality.

CONCEPTS

Resources, ideas and activities based around the seven defining concepts on the course: identity, perspective, culture, communication, representation, creativity, and transformation.

ASSESSMENT

A wealth of resources for guiding students on the course's main assessment tasks, as well as a large - and growing - number of exemplars.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"The site offers an engaging and imaginative approach to IB English - clear and informative it would be of use to both new and experienced teachers alike."

Jane Henshaw, Sevenoaks, United Kingdom

"An excellent and invaluable site that will make the teaching of IB Literature both fun and engaging for students and teachers. The quality and quantity of material, tips and resources is impressive."

Samantha Chesler-Leiman, International School of Brunei

"I was very impressed with the site. It is very user friendly, and gives students (and teachers) easy access to excellent resources."

Martyn Fernandes, Australian International School, Singapore

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

MARK BEVERLEY & DAVID WHITE are both experienced IB

English teachers and curriculum leaders who have served in different capacities in leading international schools. Both are experienced examiners and are actively involved in developing curriculum and pedagogy at their respective schools.

SAMPLE PAGES

INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

One of the most challenging aspects to get right in Part 1 is the Interactive Oral. This page, along with a range of others, presents you with a detailed breakdown of what the Interactive Oral asks for, as well as provide questions and sample responses to keep your students on the right track.

READING FOR SETTING

There are many pages on the site designed to encourage students' sensitivity to components of unseen passages. This one focuses on the use of setting, with questions, sample extracts and model student writing to encourage thinking about the way literary settings can work in different ways.

ODE TO A NIGHTINGALE

John Keats is a popular choice of writer for the course; this page provides lesson ideas when teaching 'Ode to a Nightingale'. It invites students to explore the meaning of the poem in and through its sounds, rhythms and language and in doing so reinforces T. S. Eliot's notion that 'Genuine poetry can communicate before it is understood'.

SAMPLE PAGES

The English B teacher is free to teach however seems appropriate... but what is 'appropriate'?

The English B website provides hundreds of practical suggestions that are appropriate - stimulating to the students, relevant to their needs, and rooted in the IB Diploma's overall principles.

KEY SECTIONS

SUBJECT GUIDE OVERVIEW

The key elements of the current Guide - particularly Conceptual understandings, Themes and Text type - explained in detail, analysed and discussed.

ASSESSMENT

Exploration of all components: exam techniques, marking criteria, and marked samples.

LANGUAGE

Priority language elements for English B. Includes the qBank - compose your own online exercises from 300+ items. Plus how to deal with TOK in English B.

TOPICS

Issues, texts and activities for use in the 3 Core and 5 Option topics.

LITERATURE

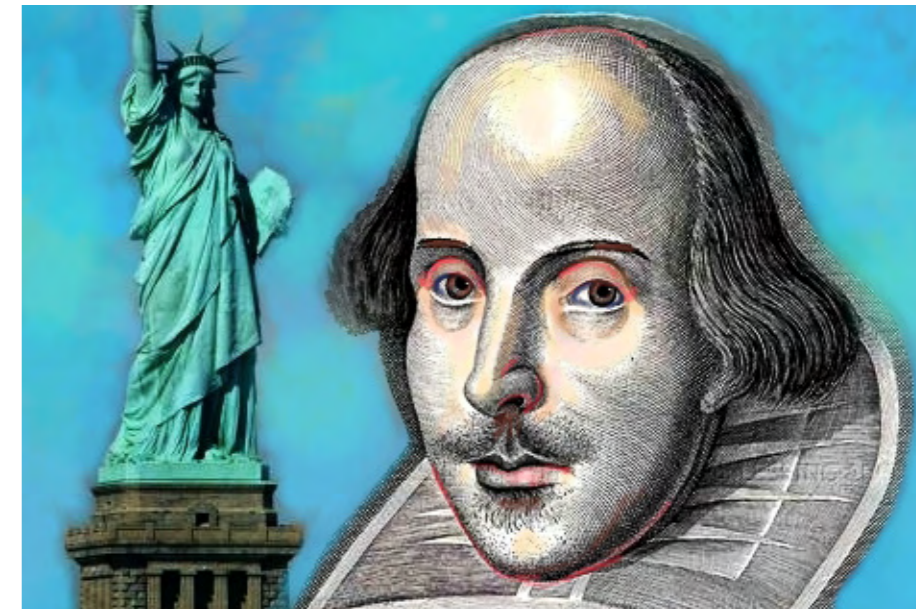

Suggested texts for Literature; and a guide to literary reading skills.

Detailed analysis and commentary on all of the required Text Types, combined with general techniques for teaching writing.

APPROACHES

The IB's educational principles, analysed, and how to apply them for English B.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"I've used so many of your resources over the years and particularly appreciate your clarification of IBO guidelines and incisive comments on assessment of student work."

Anne Height, Ivanhoe Grammar School, Australia

"It is good to have authoritative guidance by an experienced English B teacher and workshop leader... it can offer timely advice, with feedback to questions in the comments bank."

Andy Denney, United World College of South East Asia

"Whether you are new to the coursework or a seasoned hand this site is quite simply brilliant. An indispensable support tool."

Pat Karlstad, Oslo International School

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

DAVID RIPLEY AND JOSEPH O'CALLAGHAN are both very experienced English B teachers. David taught at St Clares Oxford for many years, and has handled a variety of responsibilities and projects with the IB. Joseph has taught English B and TOK, has an MA in Applied Linguistics and TESOL, and is currently Head of English Language Learning at the International School of London.

MIXED ENGLISH B CLASSES

Experience shows that the standard English B class is... non-standard. Almost always, classes contain a mixture of background, level and ability. So how do we make the most of this rich variety?

SPECIFIC TEXT TYPE SKILLS

The kind of approach required for each text type, and the kind of language expected. These can be seen as 'transfer goals' - in other words, the Really Useful Teaching Points.

BILINGUAL BRAINS

Does being bilingual change the way you think? The source article can be exploited in two principle ways - exploring the theory of what language does to us, and/or learning practical skills of how to use quotation.

The ESS site aims to support both the experienced and new ESS teachers with valuable time saving ideas and resources to enhance and improve teaching. Relevant, engaging material will stimulate and encourage students to improve their critical thinking skills and develop their own understanding of the holistic nature of the course.

KEY SECTIONS

WELCOME TO ESS

Information about course design and the use of case studies. Includes overviews of books and multimedia.

THE TOPICS

Key insights into teaching the eight topics are provided with media rich content. Activities for Learning take a student centred, inquiry approach to ESS.

PRACTICAL APPROACH

Lab, field, simulation and survey activities are presented for your PSOW.

INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION

How to scaffold and lead students through the Independent Investigation with marked examples of work.

ASSESSMENT

How is ESS assessed and tips for the final exams. Example tests and exams are provided.

REVISION

Structured material to help learn how to review for exams and the key concepts and vocabulary needed for success.

IB CORE AND PHILOSOPHY

Inspiration for international mindedness, the learner profile, TOK, CAS and Extended Essay.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"I really love that you have so many activities and video that would engage in classes. All the teaching material are ready to use; and the tests and annotated marking of works are super helpful!"

Sov Atkinson, Atlantic College, United Kingdom

"As a first-year ESS teacher, this website has helped me immensely. I have been able to see the course more holistically and can map out which topics can be taught together. The time I have spent lesson planning has been significantly reduced due to the large variety of activities and practicals available."

Tara Hasan, Australian International School, Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam

"This website provides an extensive range of rich resources that are implementation ready. Both new and experienced teachers will find value, ranging from practical lab activities as well as online database/simulation activities as well as embedded videos and case studies."

Christina Wilson, Meridian School, Texas, USA

ÉLÈVES : EN ROUTE POUR UN 7!

Tout ce qu'il faut pour que vos élèves se préparent aux examens de manière autonome.

RECOMMENDATIONS

This is a fantastic resource for IB Content. I use it every single day in my classroom. I HIGHLY recommend it. Photo prompts are extremely useful as well as actually being able to hear recordings and evaluations of Individual Orals. The Écoute is also invaluable and I like that the activities are aligned with DELF. We use this a LOT in our classroom. Amazing site. Merci merci merci!

Stephanie Lerikos, Dr. G.W. Williams Secondary School, Canada

Je suis tellement contente que ma collègue m'ait parlé de ce site et des ressources, un très très grand merci pour tout! C'est ma première année d'IB et je ne sais pas ce que je ferais sans ce site, surtout pour les exercices d'écoute.

Sofie Aernouts, GEMS American Academy Abu Dhabi, Émirats arabes unis

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

ANN ABRIOUX, PASCALE CHRETIEN, NATHALIE FAYAUD

IB CORE

Comprehensive guidance for both the Extended Essay and the integration of TOK into the course.

SAMPLE PAGES

WHERE PEOPLE LIVE IN RESIDENTIAL AREAS

This page develops the use of Google Maps to take students on a virtual tour of different residential areas in Brussels. It then contrasts cities in a range of development settings.

POLICIES TOWARDS GENDER EQUALITY AND PEOPLE TRAFFICKING

This topic is introduced to students through a survey on the level of gender equality in their own community. A research activity then leads to a role-play of a UN Committee tasked to develop integrated policies on gender equality and people trafficking

GEOGRAPHY TOK REFLECTIONS

A series of detailed Geography based TOK Reflections which can be woven into Geography lessons or used to help students integrate Geography thinking and concepts into their TOK essays.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"This website allows teachers and students to have more information than just in the textbook and gives them the opportunity to practise IB style questions with each lesson unit. The video links are a great resource and the handouts practical."

Ronan Lynch, Leysein American School, Switzerland

"A fantastic and comprehensive teacher produced site, which outshines all the current IB books and resources available of the market. Your students are sure to have great success with this site supporting them and their teachers."

Charlotte Lemaitre, British School of Brussels, Belgium

"A fantastic collection of resources for the new IB Geography syllabus presented and organized in an easy to find manner."

Sion Brocklehurst, Leysin American School, Switzerland

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

This site is designed for teachers of the German A: Language & Literature course. It offers practical lessons and student activities on all parts of the course, as well as advice, and assessment exemplars. This site will guide you through the course and help you create lessons your students will look forward to.

KEY SECTIONS

DER LANG&LIT-KURS

This section offers a full introduction to the course and its underlying principles, such as the seven concepts and the areas of exploration. You will also get useful information about course design.

SPRACHE

This section focuses on developing ideas for various "bodies of work" which are essential when teaching the language part of the course.

LITERATUR

Get ideas on how to teach the literature part of the course. You will find teaching units which are based on a variety of literary texts.

ASSESSMENT

Find many examples for the various assessment parts.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"Ich finde den Subject Site sehr wertvoll und greife sehr oft darauf zurück. Vor allem finde ich es toll, dass alles sehr übersichtlich aufgebaut ist: Alles ist auf einem Fleck und man muss nicht herumsuchen. Deine Tipps für die einzelnen Assessments..."

Beatrix Langbauer, Graz International Bilingual School, Austria

"Mir gibt der Subject Site viel Sicherheit. Er bietet in klar strukturierter Form sehr viele Informationen. Wenn ich eine Frage habe, kann ich schnell auf relevante Informationen zugreifen. Die Beispiele sind stets gut durchdacht und es gibt viele..."

Ina Serafini, Institut Montana, Zug, Schweiz, Switzerland

"Danke dir und bitte weiter so mit der Seite... Das ist so gut und hilfreich!"

Julia Schöngart, International School of Tianjin, China

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

TANJA VOGT is an experienced IB German teacher, workshop leader and examiner with a Masters in Education and Germanic Languages. She lives in Brussels and taught German for many years at the International School. Having worked as a journalist for various German media before becoming a teacher, she is delighted to combine teaching and publishing.

SAMPLE PAGES

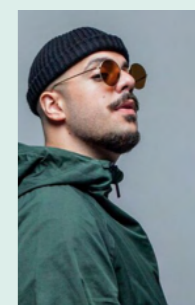

CINDY SHERMAN

Find a lesson plan for a "body of work" with the works of the artist Cindy Sherman. The subject site offers a variety of "bodies of work" for the language part of the course and new "bodies of work" are developed on a regular basis.

DAS INDIVIDUAL ORAL

This page -along with others - presents you with a detailed breakdown of what is required to succeed the oral exam and provides sample responses for you and your students.

DEUTSCHER RAP

Teaching songs as literary texts has become very popular. This page about German Rap songs will motivate your students to engage with poetry in a different way.

The site has been designed to be your “go to resource” for everything related to DP Global Politics. Teachers can give students access to materials they would like to use in their classroom with no adaptation necessary. The site addresses all the prescribed content for the new guide and provides support for the assessment components.

KEY SECTIONS

CONTENT COVERAGE

Each topic consists of activating exercises, short videos, articles, and activities that link the course content to real-world examples of global politics in action. In addition, each topic includes thorough readings that capture the central elements of all the prescribed content in the course.

INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT

All readings, videos, and links to articles include guiding questions for students and suggested answers for teachers. In addition, there is a robust compilation of Global Politics resources as well as suggestions for approaching the course.

ASSESSMENT

The site provides thorough assessment guidance, sample Papers that can be used with students, and examples of student work for all four assessments, including the new Paper 3.

INQUIRY

The site includes opportunities for students to engage in guided inquiries as part of each topic. The inquiries allow teachers and students to adapt the prompts to their unique contexts.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"I found the website overall very good indeed... The quantity and especially the quality of the material offered are often impressive and of a kind which will be of very great use to both new and experienced IB Global Politics teachers."

Francesca Trabacca, Paris, France

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

BRIAN HULL has 25 years of teaching experience and has been teaching Global Politics since it was made available for first teaching. He was part of the curriculum development team for the new guide, is a senior examiner of the Engagement Project, and has examined Papers 1 and 2. He has also co-authored a textbook written for the new guide.

The InThinking IB History site is designed to help you and your students achieve success in the IB History Diploma programme. You will find guidance on the skills required as well as student activities on all parts of the course, on topics from medieval to modern, from Genghis Khan to the end of the Cold War.

KEY SECTIONS

COURSE DESIGN

Ideas for putting a curriculum together with pathways from the wide range of topics and time periods available.

PRESCRIBED SUBJECTS

Content and teaching ideas for the Prescribed Subjects as well as sample Paper 1's with mark schemes and graded student samples.

PAPER 2

Content and a variety of activities to help cover cross regional case studies for a range of topics. Exemplar graded essays you can use with your students.

PAPER 3

Content and a variety of activities to help cover the Sections for each regional paper. Exemplar graded essays you can use with your students.

ESSAY WRITING

Essay frames and activities to improve essay writing for Paper 2 and 3 topics. Graded essays you can use with your students.

IA AND THE CORE

Guidance on setting up the IA; guidance on writing an Extended Essay in history. Connections between History and TOK; Exemplar marked examples of Internal Assessments and Extended Essays.

RESOURCE SUGGESTIONS

Links to resources as well as videos accompanied by teacher notes and questions.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"Finally an InThinking site for IB History - and what a great one! Full of superb teaching ideas, materials and practical advice. Both my students and myself have benefited immensely from the wealth of guidance and inspiration on the site. Highly recommended for anyone teaching IB History!"

Dr Tatjana Muth, Bilinguales Gymnasium Phorms München, Germany

"Being such a content heavy course, it's important to keep activities engaging and interesting for students. InThinking helps you do just that. Creative, outside-the-box and critical thinking lessons abound. Can't recommend it enough!"

Jacki Ronalds, Uptown School, Dubai, UAE

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

JO THOMAS & KEELY ROGERS

ave over 50 years of IB teaching experience between them and bring expertise on teaching medieval, early modern and modern history topics. Jo and Keely are both workshop leaders and have co-authored several textbooks for IB history.

SAMPLE PAGES

NON-VIOLENT CONFLICT

This sample page demonstrates how the site is designed around a topic that covers one or more pieces of prescribed content. Each topic includes an activating exercise, topic content that often includes videos and articles, and a concluding inquiry that links the topic to real-world examples.

PAPER 3

This new assessment component will be the focus of regular updates for this site. In addition to an explanation of Paper 3 and suggestions for how to approach instruction, teachers and students will benefit from sample Paper 3s and student exemplars.

WHY THEORY?

The Global Politics guide encourages teachers and students to explore and consider many different types of theory. To supplement this, the site dedicates a section to explaining why we use theory and how it can be a valuable lens for examining political issues in global politics.

JAPANESE EXPANSION: INTERNATIONAL RESPONSE 1931-41

This page explores the ineffective response of the League of Nations to the invasion of Manchuria and the key Chinese response which came in December 1936 with the formation of the Second United Front to resist Japan. The activities here also explore how as the war in Asia developed the US policy of isolationism shifted and it applied sanctions on Japan.

THE EASTERN QUESTION AND THE CRIMEAN WAR

This page examines the growth of Great Power intervention and European challenges to the Ottoman Empire as the Eastern Question threatened the balance of power which had been established at the Congress of Vienna in 1815.

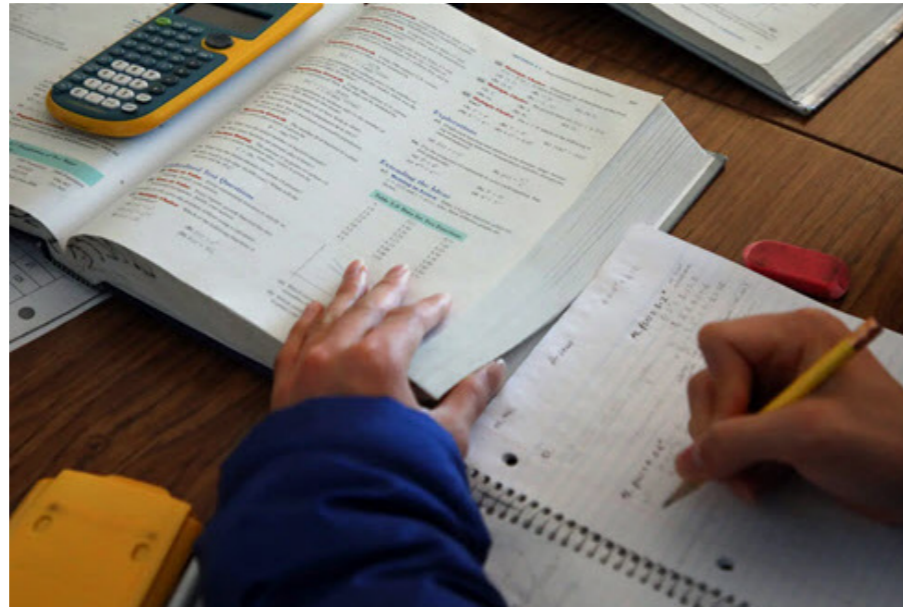

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION

This page introduces the section on The Mexican Revolution, which began on 20 November 1910, and is considered the first major political, social and cultural revolution of the 20th century. It was an armed conflict that led to a civil war which radically transformed the country's political and social structures.

The Mathematics: Analysis & Approaches site provides teachers with proven teaching resources and strategies, expert content knowledge, downloadable mock exams, and more.

KEY SECTIONS

GDC

Useful information and guidance on calculator use in teaching and assessment.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"I really like the continuously expanding InThinking Maths resources. I always find something useful among the plentiful, practical, well-formatted resources - including notes, assignments, assessments, and interesting student pages. Absolutely no purchase regrets!"

Holly Garner, Lincoln Community School, Ghana

"I highly recommend any IB Mathematics Teacher who is seeking expert guidance on how best to teach either Standard Level or Higher Level Mathematics in today's classroom, subscribe to the InThinking website. It is an invaluable resource for both experienced and new IB teachers alike!"

Mike Murray, Dubai American Academy

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

TIM GARRY & KEVIN FREDERICK

have nearly 60 years of combined teaching experience. They have both been Head of Maths at several international schools, co-authored IB Maths textbooks for all four DP Maths courses, and delivered a range of workshops and conference presentations.

The site supports teachers and learners with the varied demands of this rich mathematics course. Packed with creative teaching ideas, rigorous practice and expert advice, the goal is to help you and your students get the most out of the course, and save you huge amounts of time with our one stop resource shop.

KEY SECTIONS

TEACHER SUPPORT

Advice for teachers on all the aspects of planning, managing and teaching this amazing course.

ENGAGING ACTIVITIES

Lots of resources designed to help students engage mathematically through rich activities that bring mathematics alive.

PRACTICE & EXAM STYLE QUESTIONS

Hundreds of practice questions and exercises to help students master ideas as well as a big and growing bank of exam style questions.

APPROACHES TO TEACHING AND LEARNING

Strong focus on the core philosophical elements of the Diploma Program designed to help and support students in deep understanding and the bigger picture.

INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

A huge section devoted to the IA task. Advice, inspiration, examples and more to help students get the most out of this key element.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"This site has everything you need to supplement your course. What I most love about this site is that the activities are all ready to go and designed to bring meaning to the Applications and interpretation syllabus."

Valerie Koch, International school of Zug and Luzern, Switzerland

"What I love about this site is that there is something for all IB Maths teachers, whatever their level of experience. I like especially how the activities address the aims and objectives of the course in creative ways, such as in 'Percentage perception'"

David Harris, St Clare's Oxford, UK

"InThinking is an invaluable resource. It not only provides great information and helpful tools; the mock assessments and problems are incredibly beneficial in making my own mock exams and DPI final exams."

David Platt, Shen Wai international school, China

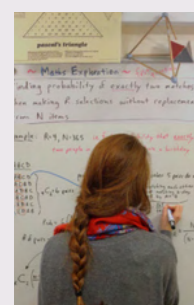

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

JIM NOBLE & OLIVER BOWLES

are both experienced and current IB mathematics teachers, workshops leaders and examiners. Both were involved in various curriculum review committees past and present and enjoy the opportunity the applications course offers to bring mathematics to life.

SAMPLE PAGES

MANAGING THE EXPLORATION

Practical tips and resources for teachers to work effectively with their students on producing a successful Exploration (IA task).

SAMPLE MOCK EXAMS

Several sets of high-quality mock exams (SL & HL) - with worked solutions and markschemes - that are not available elsewhere.

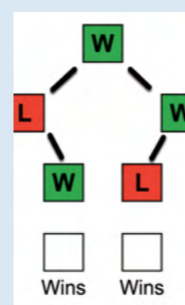

UNITS & TEACHING PLAN

Detailed teaching plan (scheme of work) for both SL and HL that includes suggested content units and possible teaching sequence.

SAMPLE PAGES

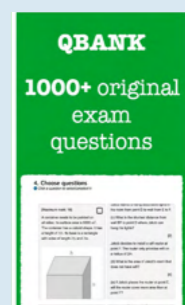

THE GLASS BRIDGE PROBLEM

The Glass Bridge problem gives us a really good example of how the binomial distribution plays out in context and it seems an unmissable opportunity for this course. On this page we walk you through a great simulation of the game and then offer the resources to help you get a firm grip on the key concepts.

TYPE 1 AND 2 ERRORS

How sure are we that we haven't made a mistake? That we haven't REJECTED our original hypothesis, when actually, it's true (Type I error), or that, even though we found NO evidence in the samples we took to reject it, we've falsely ACCEPTED it (Type II error)?

QBank
1000+ original exam questions

QUESTION BANK

In this section you can choose from original exam questions that you won't find anywhere else on the site. Select topic and difficulty to make and export your own tests.

This site is designed to support both new and experienced teachers as well as students from diverse backgrounds. You will find a substantial repository of information aimed at facilitating the application of the IB approach to teaching music. This includes detailed course information, sample lessons, assessed student work, resources for ensemble-based learning, music technology and more.

KEY SECTIONS

FOR TEACHERS

Familiarise yourself with the overarching IB frameworks to ensure that you effectively plan your course and adequately address the needs of your learners.

FOR STUDENTS

Contains essential information regarding the relationship between music and the core, as well as introductory activities and other necessary resources.

NAILING THE CONTENT

Thoroughly engage with all course components, focus on the skills required of students, effective teaching strategies, and a diverse array of lesson ideas.

ACING THE ASSESSMENT

RECOMMENDATIONS

Esta herramienta me está siendo de gran utilidad. Incluso diría que está siendo crucial en mi día a día en la escuela. Aquí se puede encontrar, no solamente una excelente planificación, sino también actividades, ejercicios, sumativos, formativos... ininidad de recursos que están perfectamente organizados y detallados. No quisiera centrarme solamente en la calidad de la web, sino también en la calidad humana de las creadoras de esta web, en las personas que trabajan para que esta web sea tan maravillosamente útil: Carina y Encina, que están siempre dispuestas a responder a nuestras preguntas, a escuchar nuestras opiniones y a ayudarnos a mejorar en nuestra labor como docentes. Millones de gracias por todo.

Núria, International School of Lausanne, Switzerland

I have used several of the resources on this site! In addition, the site organization has helped me to better grasp how to organize my coursework... I wish I had more free time to search on the site! I'm grateful that our school paid the subscription fee as it has been very useful.

PROF. DR. NÜKET ESEN'İN "ŞİŞANE'YE YAĞMUR YAĞIYORDU" OKUMASI

Bu derste, Haldun Taner'in "Şişane'ye Yağmur Yağıyordu" hikâyesinin analizini Prof. Dr. Nüket Esen'den dinliyoruz. Prof. Esen, Boğaziçi Üniversitesi'nde verdiği "Metin Analizine Giriş" dersinde anlattığı edebî teknikleri metin üzerinde açıklamaktadır.

OKUMA BİÇİMLERİ

"Okuma pratikleri", edebî eserlerle ilgili olarak benimseyebileceğimiz farklı yöntemleri çağırıştır ve bu nedenle bize hem bulunan hem de yaratılan anlam hakkında farklı şeyler söyler. IB Dil A Öğretmeni için Destek Materyali'nde bahsedilen teoriler bu sayfada örneklerle açıklanmıştır.

KÂĞIT 2 ÖRNEĞİ: "MUHTEŞEM GATSBY" VE "GÖNÜLSÜZ KÖKTENDİNCİ"

F. Scott Fitzgerald tarafından yazılan Muhtemem Gatsby, hayatını eski sevgilisi Daisy'yi etkilemeye çalışarak geçiren umutsuz romantik Jay Gatsby'nin hikâyesini anlatır. Mohsin Hamid'in Gönülsüz Köktendinci'si, daha iyi fırsatlar için New York'a taşınan genç bir Pakistanlı olan Changezi konu alır. Bu örnek çalışma sayesinde özellikle güveniliriz anlatıcı kavramının bir metne etkisini daha iyi kavrayacağınızı düşünüyoruz.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

HEATHER MCREYNOLDS & SHANNON BRINKLEY combine their diverse experiences in IB Visual Arts, teaching students, training teachers, and examining all course components. Together they provide dynamic, practical, creative support material to meet the needs of IB Art teachers at all levels of experience.

Whatever your context and level of experience, you will find a wealth of creative, relevant and skills-focused activities on the CP site for students and teachers. These activities support core areas such as Personal and Professional Skills and the Reflective Project as well as the wider CP framework. We keep abreast of any changes to the CP and support the holistic development of the CP with ATT and ATL embedded throughout.
